

I am opposed to the attempt by BellSouth and other phone companies to effectively oust independent ISPs. My ISP, Sonic, is local, accessible easily, provides jobs in the community and has an excellent reputation. Big is not always better!